SACRAMENTO, California – November 27, 2017 – S&W Seed Company (Nasdaq: SANW) today announced that it has moved its global corporate offices from Hanford, California to Sacramento, California. Located in Old Sacramento, the office will consolidate S&W's executive, sales and marketing, finance and administration teams.

S&W will continue to maintain its locations in Five Points, California, which includes seed production and processing, Nampa, Idaho, which includes seed production and processing as well as its newly constructed research and development facilities for alfalfa, stevia and sorghum, and in Arlington, Wisconsin, which includes alfalfa research and development. Additionally, S&W Seed Company will continue to maintain its locations in Australia, including: Adelaide and Keith in South Australia covering sales, administration, seed production, processing and alfalfa research and development; and Toowoomba, Queensland as the center for S&W's research in hybrid seed crops.

The new global corporate address is 106 K Street, Suite 300, Sacramento, California 95814.

About S&W Seed Company

Founded in 1980, S&W Seed Company is a global agricultural company, headquartered in the San Joaquin Valley of California. S&W's vision is to be the world's preferred proprietary seed company which supplies a range of forage and specialty crop products that supports the growing global demand for animal proteins and healthier consumer diets. S&W is a global leader in alfalfa seed, with significant research and development, production and distribution capabilities. S&W's capabilities span the world's alfalfa seed production regions, with operations in the Western United States, including the San Joaquin and Imperial Valleys of California, Australia, and Canada. S&W sells its seed products in more than 30 countries around the globe. S&W also provides hybrid sorghum and sunflower, and is utilizing its research and breeding expertise to develop and produce stevia, the all-natural, zero calorie sweetener for the food and beverage industry.
