

SP 31A15

EARLY MATURITY HYBRID GRAIN SORGHUM

KEY POSITIONING / BENEFITS

- Very good yield for early maturity
- Excellent option for double crop, late plantings, or shorter growing seasons
- Strong emergence and seedling vigor
- Very good drought tolerance and staygreen
- Sensitive to growth regulating herbicides
- Recommend 15 inch rows or narrower
- Consistent, stable performance

POSITIONING / MANAGEMENT

SP 31A15 is a bronze early maturity grain sorghum with very good yield for maturity, strong emergence and seedling vigor. This hybrid adapts very well to shorter growing season environments, late plantings, and double crop scenarios. It's very good drought tolerance, above average stalk quality, and strong stand establishment and seedling vigor provide very consistent, stable performance.
